

I'll Do Anything

She found a Gideon Bible in that cheap motel
She reads the story about Jesus and the woman at the well
She sees herself inside those pages and wonders how she got so far gone, so far away from home and she cries

I'll do anything I'll pay any price
I'll do whatever it takes to make something of my life
If there's a way to start all over and wipe the slate completely clean
I'll do anything

From the other side of Calvary God saw us lost
He looked at you and me and then he looked at the cross
Oh the price, the sacrifice it would take, who would pay, who would go
Then Jesus stepped down from His throne and He said.....

I'll do anything I'll pay any price
I'll do whatever it takes to make something of my life
If there's a way to start all over And wipe the slate completely clean
I'll do anything

I'll take up my cross lay down my life and go to Calvary
I'll go through hell for three days and come back with the keys

I'll do anything I'll pay any price
I'll do whatever it takes to make something of my life
If there's a way to start all over And wipe the slate completely clean
I'll do anything
I'll do anything

Words & Music by: Kenna Turner West/David Staton